

A rustic classroom with two long wooden tables and red chairs. The room features industrial-style lighting with large black pendant lamps. The walls are white with some peeling paint, and there are wooden doors and a window with blinds. A poster on the wall reads 'SAINTE-MAXIME'. The floor is made of wooden planks. The text 'the classroom' is written in a white, cursive font across the center of the image.

In keeping with its name, this loft has been decorated with many beautiful objects that evoke an old classroom, such as antique globes, wall maps, microscopes, and photographs. It features a separate wardrobe and a 16 m2 bar with a parquet floor made from the wood of a former school gymnasium.

"The Classroom" is a perfect place for workshops and private events, but also a unique background for photo shoots, film shoots, commercials, or video shoots. By booking the 33sqm "winter garden" with its historic window wall, over 100-year-old terracotta tiles, and lush greenery, "The Classroom" gains an additional versatile dimension. Whether used as a breakout room, dining room, or back office, the "winter garden" provides the right atmosphere.

A unique location for workshops, corporate events, photo or film shoots.
