

A vintage-style interior with a dining table, chairs, a bar, and arched doorways. The room features a wooden dining table with white-cushioned chairs, a bar with a wooden counter, and a large arched doorway leading to another room. The walls are textured and aged, and the floor is made of wooden planks. A hanging lamp with three white shades is positioned above the dining table. A green floral cabinet is visible near the doorway on the right. A rocking chair is on the far right, and a blue chair is visible through the doorway. A typewriter is on the bar counter on the left.
